6 small to medium potatoes (red is best, but any will work)

2 tablespoons finely chopped onion

Olive oil

Parboil the potatoes; al-dente, knife slides in but not easily all the way. Let potatoes cool and sit at room temperature overnight. Peel potatoes. Shred them with the large side of a cheese grater. Heat olive oil in the pan. Once hot, add onion and add the shredded potatoes on top. Add salt and pepper to taste. Fry the golden brown. Don't stir them too often, keep them airy not mushy!
